authority prior to cessation, and shall have announcement in each business place to notify participants about their rights and interests to return goods to multi-level marketing enterprises according to participation contracts.

CHAPTER THREE

THE PRACTICE OF MULTI-LEVEL MARKETING ACTIVITIES

Article 10

Before a participant takes part in the plan or organization of a multi-level marketing enterprise, the enterprise shall inform the participant of the following particulars, and shall make no concealment, false, or misleading presentations:

1. paid-up capital and gross business volume of the multi-levels sales enterprise;
2. multi-level marketing plan, and conditions of participation;
3. laws and regulations relevant to multi-level marketing;
4. obligations and responsibilities of a participant, and conditions of withdrawal by a participant from the organization or plan, and rights and obligations arising from the withdrawal;
5. matters relevant to the goods or services;
6. the calculation methods, criterion, and reasons, when multi-levels sale enterprises deduct the devaluation amount from the price in repurchasing the goods or services pursuant to the later sentence of Articles 21.3 or 24 of the Act;
7. such other matters as may be required by the competent authority.

When a participant introduces another person to participate in the organization or plan, such participant shall make no false or misleading presentations on items listed in the preceding paragraph

Article 11

When recruiting participants by advertising or other means, a multi-level marketing enterprise shall make it clearly known that it is engaged in multi-level marketing activities; neither may it recruit participants under the disguise of recruiting employees or on other pretense.

Article 12

When promoting or selling goods or services or recruiting participants by means of declared cases of success, a multi-level marketing enterprise or its participants shall concretely explain the time periods, benefits obtained, and course of development of such cases, and may not make false or misleading representations.

Article 13

A multi-level marketing enterprise shall enter into a participation contract in writings with that who intends to participate in the plan or organization, and the multi-level marketing enterprise shall give the participant an original participation contract.

The writings referred to in the preceding paragraph may not be in the form of an electronic document.

Article 14

The content of written contract should include the following:

1. matters referred in of Subparagraph Articles 10.1(2)–(7);
2. breaches of contract by the participants and the measures to the breaches;

3. the rights and obligations as referred in Articles 20–22, or the provisions that are more beneficial for participants;
4. the method for handling a request by a participant to return goods, when the contract is terminated because of participants' violation of business rules or plans, or breaches as referred in Article 15.1, or other reasons attributable to participants;and;
5. the conditions for renewal of contracts and the method of handling, when the contracts stipulate specific term of participation.

Article 15

Multi-level marketing enterprises shall stipulate in contract that the following are breaches of the participant, and shall prescribe methods for handling such breaches in order to prevent such breaches:

1. promoting or selling goods or services, or recruiting participants to the sales organization, by deceptive or misleading means;
2. raising funds from other persons in the name of the multi-level marketing enterprise or through its organization;
3. engaging in sales by means that run counter to public order or good morals;
4. affecting consumers' rights and interests by improper direct sales calls;
5. engaging in sales that violate the Criminal Code or other laws or regulations governing industry and commerce.

Multi-level marketing enterprises shall enforce the handling methods referred in the preceding paragraph faithfully.

Article 16

Multi-level marketing enterprises may not recruit incapacitated persons to be participants.

A multi-level marketing enterprise recruiting a person with limited capacity to be a participant shall first obtain the written consent from the legal representative of such a person and also attach the said written consent to the contract.

The written consent referred to in the preceding paragraph may not be an electronic document.

Article 17

A multi-level marketing enterprise shall prepare the balance sheet and income statement for its multi-level marketing operations in the previous accounting year before the end of May each year and keep them in its main office.

When the capital of a multi-level marketing enterprise reaches the amount specified in Article 20.2 of the Company Act or the total multi-level marketing business volume in the previous accounting year exceeds the amount announced by competent authority, the multi-level marketing enterprise shall require auditing and certification by a certified public accountant for its financial statements.

Participants may request to inspect the aforesaid financial statements of the multi-level marketing enterprise to which they belong and the multi-level marketing enterprise may not refuse such requests without justifications.

Article 18

Multi-levels sales enterprises shall have participants engaged in promoting and selling goods or service in reasonable market price as their major income, instead of earning mainly by introducing new participants.

Article 19

A multi-level marketing enterprise may not engage in any of the following activities:

1. requiring a participant to pay any fee obviously incommensurate with the cost in the name of training, seminars, social activities, meetings, promotion or other like activities;
2. requiring a participant to pay any security deposit, breach penalty, or other fee, which is obviously unreasonable;
3. requiring a participant to purchase goods in a quantity that would obviously be impossible for an average person to sell out in a short period, unless it is agreed that the price shall be paid only after the goods are re-sold;
4. giving specific persons preferential treatment in a manner contrary to the multi-level marketing organization or plan and therefore damaging other participants' rights and interests;
5. unduly request a participant to buy or grant a participant permission in two or more multi-levels sales organizations;
6. requiring a participant to undertake obviously unfair obligations.

Participants shall not engage in the activities referred in subparagraph 1 through, 3, 5 and 6 against the persons he or she introduce to participate.

CHAPTER FOUR

RESCISSION AND TERMINATION OF CONTRACTS

Article 20

Any participant may rescind or terminate the participation contract by giving the multi-level enterprise notice in writings within thirty days after entering into such contract.

Within a period of thirty days after rescission or termination of the contract takes effect, the multi-level marketing enterprise shall accept the application from the participant for returning of goods, collect or accept goods returned by the participant, and return to the participant all the payment for goods made upon purchase and any other fees paid to the multi-level enterprise.

In returning the payments made by the participant according to the preceding paragraph, the multi-level marketing enterprise may deduct upon the time of returning of the goods the value decreased due to the damage or loss attributable to the participant, and any bonus or remuneration already paid to the participant for purchase of such goods.

If the returned goods are collected by the enterprise, the enterprise may deduct the shipping costs required for such collection.

Article 21

After the lapse of the period as referred to in the first paragraph of the preceding article, the participant at any time may still terminate the contract by writing and withdraw from the multi-level marketing plans or organizations, and request to return the goods.

Within thirty days from the termination of the contract in accordance with the preceding paragraph, the multi-level marketing enterprise shall buy back all goods possessed by the participant at ninety percent (90%) of the original purchase price.

The multi-level marketing enterprise may deduct the bonuses or remuneration paid to the participant for the purchase as well as the amount of the decreased value of the goods.

If the returned goods are collected by the enterprise, the enterprise may deduct the shipping costs required for such collection.

Article 22

When the participant exercises the right to rescind or terminate the contract in accordance with the two preceding articles, the multi-level marketing enterprise may not claim damages or levy penalties against the participant for such rescission or termination.

When the sold goods are supplied by third parties, and the participants exercise the right to rescind or terminate, the multi-level sales enterprise shall handle the returning of goods and repurchase according to the preceding two articles, and shall pay the damages or penalties third party suppliers charge the participants.

Article 23

Multi-level sales enterprises shall not improperly hinder a participant from returning goods according to provisions of this Act.

Multi-level sales enterprises shall not unjustifiably withhold commissions, bonuses, or other economic benefit payable to a participant after rescission or termination of the contract.

Article 24

The regulations relevant to the goods in this Chapter shall apply mutatis mutandis to services.
